1. Attached hereto are:

a. Memorandum to Executive for Administration & Management from Assistant Director for Operations, Subject: Amendment to Travel Order issued to [REDACTED] FBIB

25X1

b. Letter to me from [REDACTED] dated 9 October 1948

2. A study of the attachments described in paragraph 1 above will, I am sure, make clear my reasons for placing [REDACTED] on temporary duty at Reseda, even though I remain fully aware of your serious shortage of editors. Briefly, I felt that a loyal employee such as [REDACTED] merited every possible consideration under the circumstances. In addition, he can be of considerable service to Reseda.

3. I have every intention of returning [REDACTED] to London when his personal affairs permit, and after he serves approximately 60 days reorientation in Washington.
